

TROY MIYASATO AIA, MBA

Mr. Miyasato is Principal/President and Treasurer with Ferraro Choi and Associates Ltd. Licensed as an Architect in 1993, he joined the firm in September 1997 and became a Principal in 2003. His current responsibilities include management of Ferraro Choi's office operations and project management in both the interior architecture and architectural departments.

In addition to his degree in Architecture, Mr. Miyasato's education includes a Bachelor of Science degree in Food Science & Human Nutrition and a Master's in Business Administration, all from the University of Hawaii at Manoa. His broad educational background and experience provides a foundation for his architectural career that focuses on healthcare, retail and commercial projects, corporate interior office renovations, and educational buildings. All are marked by a client-focused attention to detail and his unique ability to approach projects from both the design and business perspectives.

Mr. Miyasato has been a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA) since 1993, and was a director of the AIA Honolulu Chapter in 2007-08. He was Committee co-chair of the General Contractors Association of Hawaii from 2002-2017, and remains a member. He is also a member of the Hawaii Society of Business Professionals since 2003 and was president of the Board in 2012-13.

Born and raised in Hawaii, he is a graduate of Iolani School. He and his wife reside on Oahu where they raised their two children.
