

U.S. SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20416

OFFICE OF THE NATIONAL OMBUDSMAN

February 10, 2015

Dear Hawaii Business Owner or Non-Profit Executive:

The US SBA Office of National Ombudsman (ONO) is reaching out to Hawaii businesses to invite input regarding issues or challenges regarding the implementation of federal agency regulations in the following areas:

- Accessibility to capital
- Government contracts
- Healthcare and Affordable Care Act
- Federal resources for socially or economically disadvantaged small businesses and in historically under-served communities

If you're a small business or represent a non-profit organization or a small government entity (population 50,000 or less) and have a comment or complaint in any of these areas, please...

1. Contact Hawaii ONO Regulatory Fairness Board Member, Reg Baker, at reg.baker@pkfhi.com | (808) 441-2840, or
2. Visit <https://www.sba.gov/ombudsman/comments> to learn more about the process and filing a comment or complaint online

Your comments and/or written testimony will be presented at the ONO National Hearing in Washington, DC on April 27, 2015. Business representatives may attend the hearing to testify in person, or submit written testimony to be read on their behalf.

The deadline for submitting is March 2, 2015.

The mission of ONO is to facilitate dialogue between small businesses and federal agencies as an impartial liaison, so that concerns may be productively addressed resulting in reduced regulatory burdens and enhanced small business progress.

Welcoming your reply and this opportunity to help make your voice heard.

Sincerely yours,

Reg Baker
