FOR ACTION

I. REQUEST

Shall the Authority Appoint an Interim Executive Director of the Hawaii Community Development Authority to serve from March 1, 2022, until a permanent Executive Director is appointed by the Authority?

II. DISCUSSION

The current Executive Director, Deepak Neupane, has announced his retirement as Executive Director, effective March 1, 2022.

Once the position of the Executive Director becomes vacant, the Authority should appoint an interim Executive Director until the vacancy is filled by a permanent appointment.

III. RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Authority Appoint Craig Nakamoto, HCDA Compliance Assurance & Community Outreach Officer as the Interim Executive Director of the Hawaii Community Development Authority effective as of March 1, 2022, to serve from March 1, 2022, until a permanent Executive Director is appointed by the Authority.
