

RESUME

Eric Mori, PE

Executive Vice President

Mr. Mori has been an acoustical consultant with Salter since 1989. His areas of expertise are architectural, environmental, and mechanical noise control. He has extensive consulting experience with multi-family housing and mixed-use projects, both during the design phases and as an expert witness.

Legal Project Experience

- Condominiums, Provo, UT
- Condominiums, Jackson, WY
- Several Condominium Buildings, San Francisco, CA
- Several Condominium Buildings, Las Vegas, NV
- Condominiums, Daly City, CA
- Condominiums, Long Beach, CA
- Hotel/Casino, Laughlin, NV
- Apartment Building, Fremont, CA
- Condominiums, Albany, CA
- Condominiums, Encino, CA

Multi-Family Housing Design Project Experience

- Ward Village (Multiple Towers), Honolulu, HI
- One Beverly Hills Hotel and Residences, Beverly Hills, CA
- The Century, Los Angeles, CA
- La'i Loa Residences, Wailea, HI
- One Rincon Hill Towers, San Francisco, CA
- Austin Proper Hotel and Residences, Austin, TX
- Treasure Island Residences (Multiple Parcels), San Francisco, CA

Education

University of California, Berkeley, BS
Mechanical Engineering, 1989

Professional Registration

California: ME No. M28195

Professional Affiliation

Institute for Noise Control
Engineering

Allied Member of AIA San Francisco

Publications

Coauthor, ACOUSTICS: Architecture, Engineering, the Environment (1998 William Stout Publisher)

Coauthor, Multi-family housing sound isolation: A summary of industry standards for design of demising assemblies (Dec 2006)
Presented at Inter-Noise 2006,
Sponsored by I-INCE

