

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

Hawaii Housing Finance and Development Corporation (HHFDC), Department of Business, Economic Development and Tourism, State of Hawaii, will hold a public hearing on August 22, 2016 at 7:00 p.m. at the Waiahole Elementary School Cafeteria, 48-215 Waiahole Valley Road, Kaneohe, Hawaii 96744, on the adoption of Chapter 15-319, "Water Service to Consumers," Hawaii Administrative Rules. All are invited to state their views on the proposed rules orally or in writing. Five copies of written testimony shall be given to the presiding officer at the hearing, or within seven days before the hearing to HHFDC, Attention: Mavis Masaki, 677 Queen Street, Suite 300, Honolulu, Hawaii 96813.

The proposed rules establish uniform practices governing water services in Waiahole Valley. They set forth a clear procedure for an application to obtain water service for new consumers; clarify the respective rights and responsibilities of the HHFDC and water consumers, including compliance with the requirements of chapter 11-20, Hawaii Administrative Rules, and applicable federal regulations pertaining to the health and safety of public water systems; establish a new water rate schedule, service fees and late payment charges; and establish a clear procedure for discontinuation of water service for nonpayment of bills or noncompliance with HHFDC requirements for service.

The proposed rules are available for review at HHFDC, 677 Queen Street, Suite 300, during regular business days from 7:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. It is also available on the HHFDC website at <http://dbedt.hawaii.gov/hhfdc/administrative-rules> and at regional public libraries. A copy of the proposed rules may be mailed upon receipt of $4.67 for copying and postage costs.
