

Nani Medeiros, Director

(Ex Officio) Governor's Representative

Ms. Medeiros is Gov. Josh Green's Chief Housing Officer and is driving the Governor's initiatives on workforce and affordable housing, homelessness and social services policies.

She previously served as Executive Director of HomeAid Hawaii, a local affiliate of the nonprofit HomeAid, which addresses homelessness through a unique and collaborative approach that focuses on housing development and community engagement. While there, Ms. Medeiros developed Kama'okū, a Kauhale of 37 tiny homes to address homelessness.

Prior to that, Ms. Medeiros spent six years in healthcare at the Hawaii Primary Care Association, 13 years at the state Legislature, and five years in the executive branch of the state.
